Who is filling out this super cool burger questionnaire?

(age, gender, residence, dietary preferences... other fun facts are optional 😊 )

“It all started when I went to go eat burgers with my dad – at a vegan restaurant called Happen Pappen. He was sort of perplexed how “burgers” and “vegan” could go together – that was paradox. Not that he didn’t like his Seitan Burger, he actually loved it and it’s one of his favorite burgers (yes “real burgers”) now. But we agreed on the idea that calling a vegan item like like the animal product version of it is sort of weird. Why “vegan cheesecake”? “Cashewcream-“ or “Tofulicious Cake” might be more proper. But enough of my talk, I want to know what YOU think of burgers!

Below (page 1 and 2) are the more lengthy version, following on page 3-4 is the short questionnaire. Many aspects are similar on both parts, so it is best if you first fill out this part (p.1-2) first without any of my thoughts influencing you which you will find on the second part (p.3-4). Please make as many comments as you want to and fill out as much or as little as you want. Something is more than nothing and I’m happy about everything! You can send the filled out version to me by Mail, email, or take a picture and send it via direct messages on Facebook, Instagram, WhatsApp... whatever is easiest! Have fun!

1. How do you define a burger? What does it have to contain to be allowed to be called a “burger”?

2. What is the difference between a burger and a sandwich?

3. What do you think of a “burger-bowl”? Does that make sense or is it paradox?

4. What is the best burger that you've ever eaten? (Location and or ingredients)

5. What is the best burger that you've ever had in Hamburg or Berlin? And if you haven't been there yet, then it's time to get moving! I can give you lots of great tips 😊

6. Have you ever made your own burger before? If yes, what ingredients did you use – how did you make it?

7. What exactly is a "patty"? Is a burger a patty?

8. If you could put together your own burger, what would it look like?
